11TH HUMBLE SUBMISSION

No formal words of welcome; simply see a script about Pakistan portrayed by a famous writer 'THE SAINT' [Simon Templar; a geo-strategist based in Brussels] in the 'vision 21' dated 12th July 2017 – placed below verbatim:

"Nothing describes the misrule of two successive, so called democratically elected governments [PPP & PMLN] in the unstable, underdeveloped 200 million strong South Asian state of Pakistan.

How thieves, plunderers and freebooters came to rule this nuclear armed state is a sad tale in itself.

When Gen Musharraf reached his limits of flexibility, it was decided by the US and British to force him bring back the two tainted, condemned political leaders in exile and to wash away all their sins under a dubious order in the name of National Reconciliation Ordinance [NRO].

{The National Reconciliation Ordinance [NRO 2007] was a controversial ordinance issued by the former President of Pakistan, General Pervez Musharraf, on 5th October 2007 - Google.}

'The US Ambassador compelled Gen Musharraf to resign and after the mysterious, unsolved murder of Benazir Bhutto, her thuggish husband, the upstart, criminal uneducated, corrupt and much reviled Asif Zardari came to power.

The deal with the West was that we bring you [Zardari] back, wash away your past sins and you squeeze the [Pak] Army.'

*The game began and new Chief Kayani turned a blind eye, as he was busy improving his impoverished families financial condition. So well did this team work that Gen Kayani got an unprecedented 3 year second term, Zardari became a billionaire, Kayani from rags to millionaire and the country went to the dogs.

The US with its two cops in place, in charge of the Presidency and Pak-military, violated Pakistani sovereignty and physical boundaries at will, using drones, choppers, covert assassin's and whatever they chose.

*As per the unholy charter of plutocracy, Sharif kept silent during Zardari's plunder and he returned the favour after Sharif took over in 2013.

*Simple math, over-invoice $ 50 billion of Chinese funded projects - whether needed or not - by ten percent, sign sovereign guarantees, leave future generations to pay off horrifying debts and pocket 5% off the top!

Walk away with a cool $ 2.5 billion dollars. Astonishingly simple as it is audacious.

Where Zardari was a street thug, looting millions, forcing neighbours to sell their properties on the cheap, the plunderers from Punjab, whose father made pots and cooking utensils with his bare hands are now certified dollar billionaires; thanks to massive bank defaults, and international cuts commissions and kickbacks.

Wow! Wonderful, just one mistake...Sharif, egged on by vicious anti military Advisers like Junior Minister for Foreign Affairs Syed Tarik Fatami, kept on targeting the by now restive and powerful Pakistan military.

The leakage of information pertaining to thousands of offshore companies incorporated in Panama signalled the end for the strangely absent Sharif regime.

Perhaps the most corrupt and worse administered government in the history of Pakistan.....certainly the most hypocritical - destroying the civil service structure, promoting nepotism, turning state servants especially in the Punjab into glorified pimps and facilitators.

One poor married lady was famously peddled by her husband out to Sharif, then his younger brother and in turn was rewarded with top administrative positions for his immoral shamelessness.

Functioning without statutory mandated positions such as State Ombudsman, National Tax Collector, Head of the Audit Service and even without the Governor of the State Bank.

Burgeoning debt, increasingly hostile borders, declining exports, a dysfunctional government, falling stock market and collapsing currency could not shake Sharif out of his stupor.

On the ropes, with his family corruption the main story in every paper, every channel and on social media, he chose to plod on shamelessly, trying one corrupt lawyer after another in a futile attempt to cover his tracks.

*Described as a Sicilian mafioso by the worthy judges of the top constitutional court, Sharif scraped the bottom of the barrel, hiring the immoral Raja Salman Akram, known to have defended Zardari's drug dealing Prime Minister, all to no avail.

Functioning without a Foreign minister for four years, and appointing idiots as top envoys, the joke is on Sharif as he is now left with no friends to bail him out as before.

His Saudi patrons distanced themselves from their pet poodle after Sharif was unable to prevail upon his military that very sensibly refused to go and fight alongside Saudi troops in Yemen.*

Indians and Americans have realised he cannot dominate his military and the Turks and Chinese know him and his tribe as crooked, slimy money grabbers.

Despite holding office for years, Sharif has paid no attention to healthcare, education, rule of law or job creation, focusing purely on shady, unnecessary projects providing easy kickbacks.

Now decades of money laundering, defaulted bank loans and millions in off shore accounts and overseas properties stand to be exposed for what they are, the loot and plunder from 190 million poor uneducated helpless souls who are forced to sell or kill their children due to lack of justice, poverty and a gloomy future.

The question is how will things unfold? Will the shameless, immoral, hypocritical kleptocrats escape yet again to lick their wounds and enjoy their boots abroad or shall they deservedly meet the fate of another erstwhile billionaire, the late unlamented Colonel Qaddafi who died bloodied and screaming in the street as his vengeful subjects beat him to death?"

The Living History of Pakistan Vol-VII

In fact the above narration is the true reflection of us – a mirror for Pakistan as country. Pakistani politicians very well know about the values of ISLAM and of DEMOCRACY because nearly all of the leadership keep their businesses and real estates in Saudi Arabia and Dubai - and keep their families in England and America for lavish living and education.

BUT, the rascals have their own definitions of religion & democracy.

The rogue Pakistani politicians keep knowledge what they have to do and what can they do for their poor populace & voters but they CORRECTLY loot them instead because the people are foolish enough to follow them blindly [knowingly how much corrupt they are]; they don't have minds; those who keep minds have no courage; those who keep mind and courage both have no initiative drive.

Inside Pakistan, there is no nation – only living crowds; mostly thoroughly CORRUPT – but some less CORRUPT.

Henry Kissinger once said:

“Corrupt politicians make the other ten percent look bad.”

“...he who doesn't understand history is doomed to repeat it. And when it's repeated, the stakes are doubled.”
